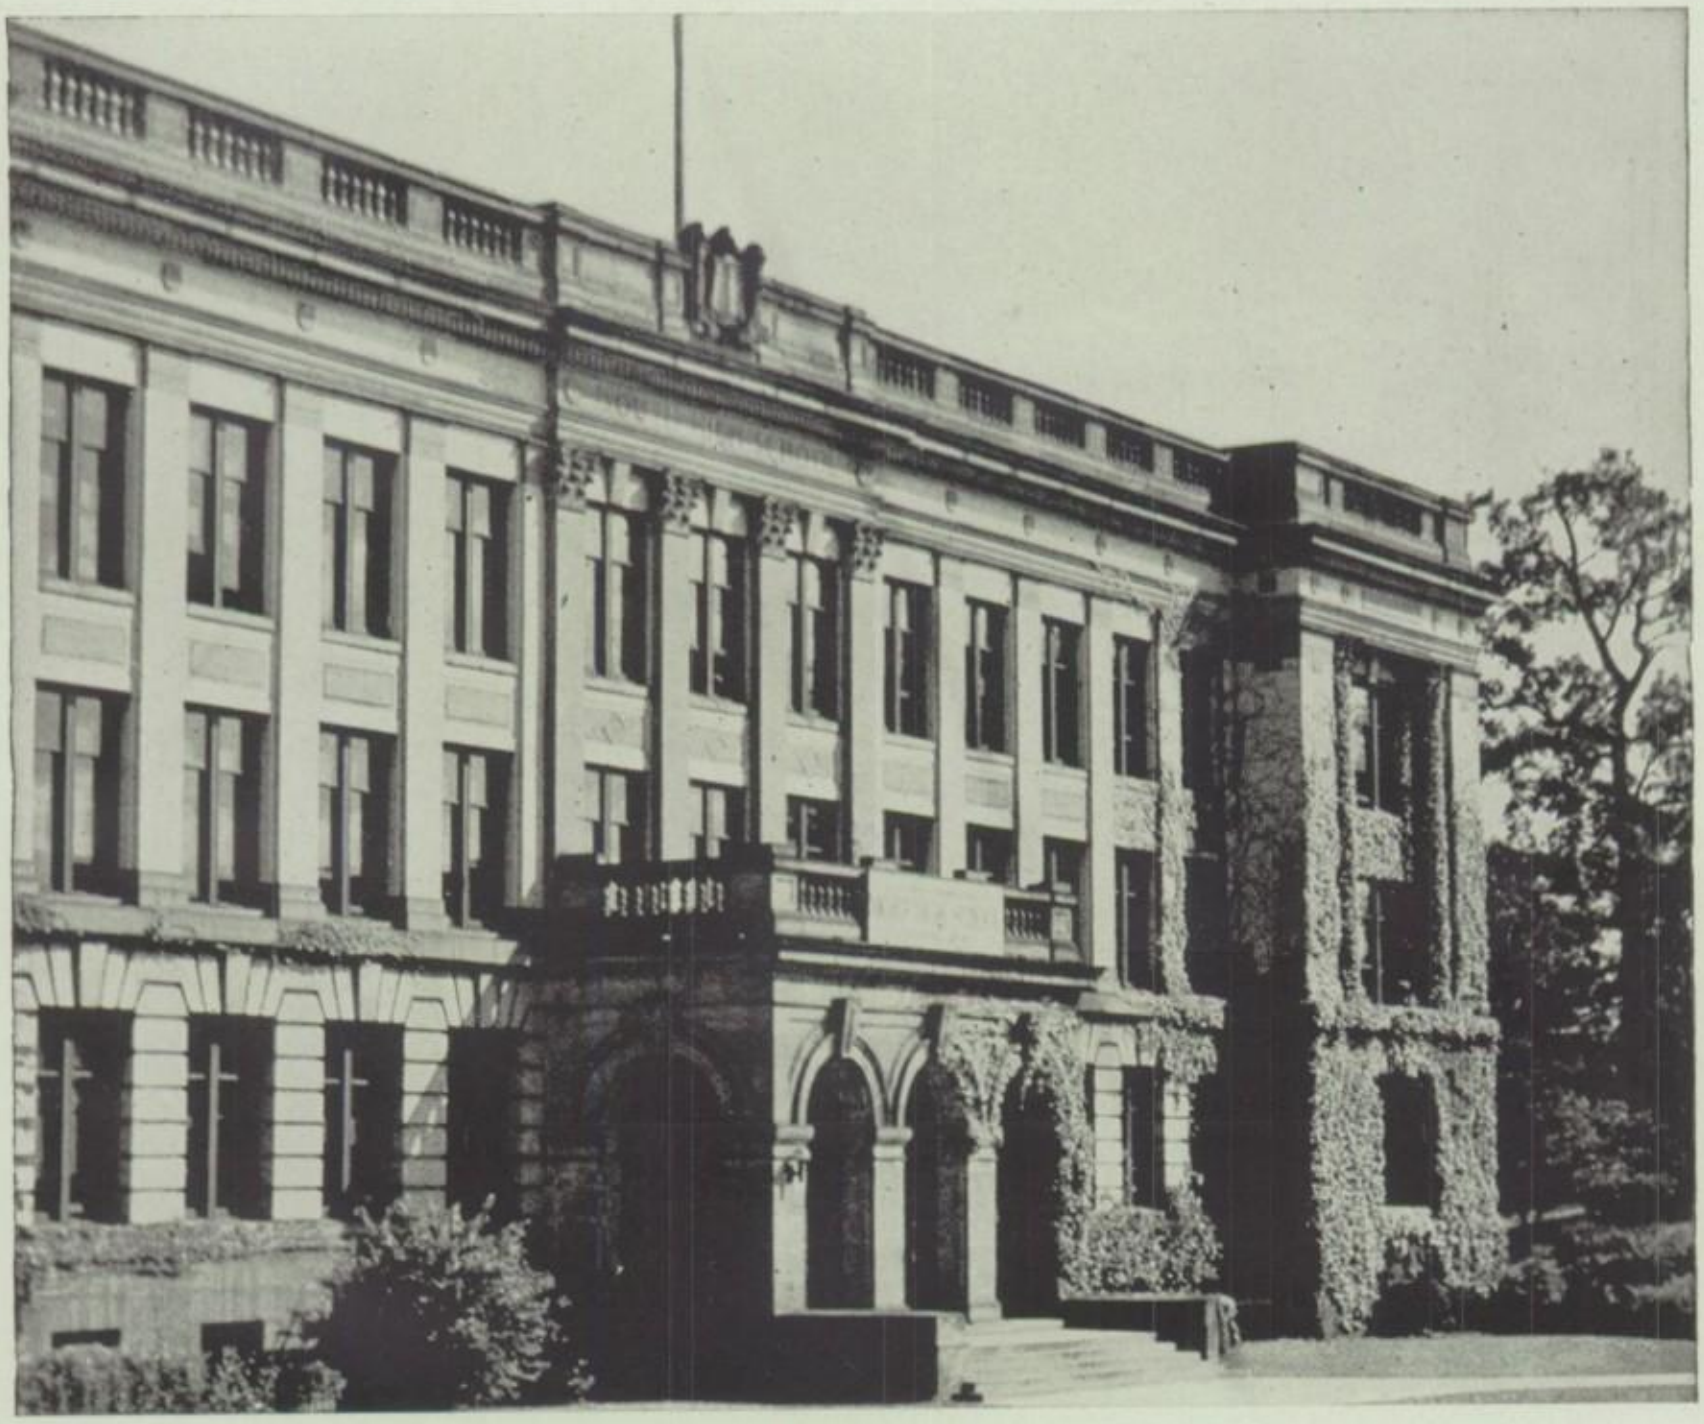
THE

1944 SOUTH HIGH ANNUAL

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

South High School . . .



"Oft in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me
Fond memory brings the light
Of other days around me."

—Thomas Moore.

Superintendent of Schools . . .

GEORGE A. BOWMAN

The students and teachers of South High School extend congratulations and sincere good wishes to George A. Bowman as he assumes the post of President of Kent State University.

Principal of South High . . .

ROBERT L. FLEMING

Congratulations are likewise extended to Robert L. Fleming as he moves into more spacious quarters and continues to serve as the same genial administrator.

Assistant Principal . . .

FRED C. BEEDE

In this simple tribute to Mr. Beede, all South High expresses its eternal gratitude to the man of action who so calmly resolves the most forbidding problem into simple daily routines.

Deans of Girls and Boys . . .

MARION P. MAIDEN

Teaching, interviewing and counseling students, conducting orientation classes, originating new social programs, even tying bows on diplomas,—these are the things that fill the school day of Dean Marion Maiden.

Keeping up with South High boys in service is a patriotic letter writing duty Dean Williams has added to his already full-time schedule of student conferences.

DAVID M. WILLIAMS

To Mr. Wright . . .

This year another stalwart of the South High faculty retires after a lifetime of service to the teaching profession. With a mathematical skill readily transferable to the field of historical fact, Mr. Wright has conducted classes in both mathematics and history in day school, night school and summer school, as well as served in the administrative post of high school principal.

All South High wishes Mr. Wright many years of happiness in his retirement.

To the Men in Service . . .

South High sends greetings and expresses the hope that they may soon return to their classroom duties and the professional life they so patriotically left in answer to the call of country.

The Faculty . . .

The last link is broken
That bound me to thee
And the words thou hast spoken
Have render'd me free.

National Forensic League . . .

The local chapter of N. F. L. was well represented in all the speaking and debating contests held in the county during the past year. In the individual events contest for the county championship, Gail Yoder won first place in oratorical declamation; Wanda Lou Davis, first, and Jocelyn Fox, seventh, in humorous declamation; and Robert Jacob, first, and Jacqueline Tallon, third, in original oratory. By winning first place in the county in original oratory, Robert Jacob advanced to the state finals where he captured first place honors. In the Prince of Peace Declamation contest, Gail Yoder carried off top county honors.

Twelve league members were engaged in regularly scheduled debate, while fifteen members served as senators on the Radio Student Congress weekly broadcasts over WKBN.

Stagecraft Club . . .

Being strong advocates of Shakespeare's "Pleasure and action make the hours seem short," the Stagecraft Club celebrated its twentieth anniversary year by producing a three-act comedy "Let Us Be Glamorous" by Austin Gootz, with E. G. Diehm acting as adviser—director. Crewmen of the organization were exceptionally active this season in assisting with the production of their own club play, the Revue, and the Operetta.

Place of Meeting: Little Theater Room 7.

Hegwin Girl Reserves . . .

Of special interest to members of the Hegwin Club during the past season were several panel discussions, a style show, the all-city Reserve prom, a series of bi-monthly dances held at the Y.W.C.A., a swimming party, and a farewell party for graduates. Mrs. Karl Soller acted as adviser for the group.

Tegmai Girl Reserves . . .

"Take every girl, make an ideal" is the goal toward which the Tegmai Girl Reserves strive under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Maier. During the past year an extensive social program, including a Halloween party, theater party, Mother and Daughter Banquet, comprised the activities.

The sport dance of May 9, arranged by Nancy Whiteman, Joan McMurray, and Elaine Harris and held at the Y. W. C. A., marked the culmination of the social season of events; while the social problems forum directed by Dean Dave Williams served as an effective and spiritual reminder of the inspiring motto of the club.

For members of the Rifle team, the season blew both hot and cold on the record. As members of the Youngstown Post No. 15 American Legion Rifle team, the South High sharpshooters captured for the second consecutive year the National Rifle Association Bi-weekly Championship meet. In the postal match with Somerset, the Red and Blue topped their adversary by a four point lead; but in the local-league contest with Boardman, Rayen and Wilson were able to turn in only two victories against four defeats in their schedule of six matches.

The Motion Picture Club more nearly approximates a hobby club than any other organized group in the school. Although members are primarily interested in amateur photography, they welcome the opportunity to learn about the technical construction and operation of moving-picture machines and sound equipment. Each year under the direction of H. R. Biggs, instructor-adviser, the group schedules a program of film showings as visual education aids to classroom teachings.

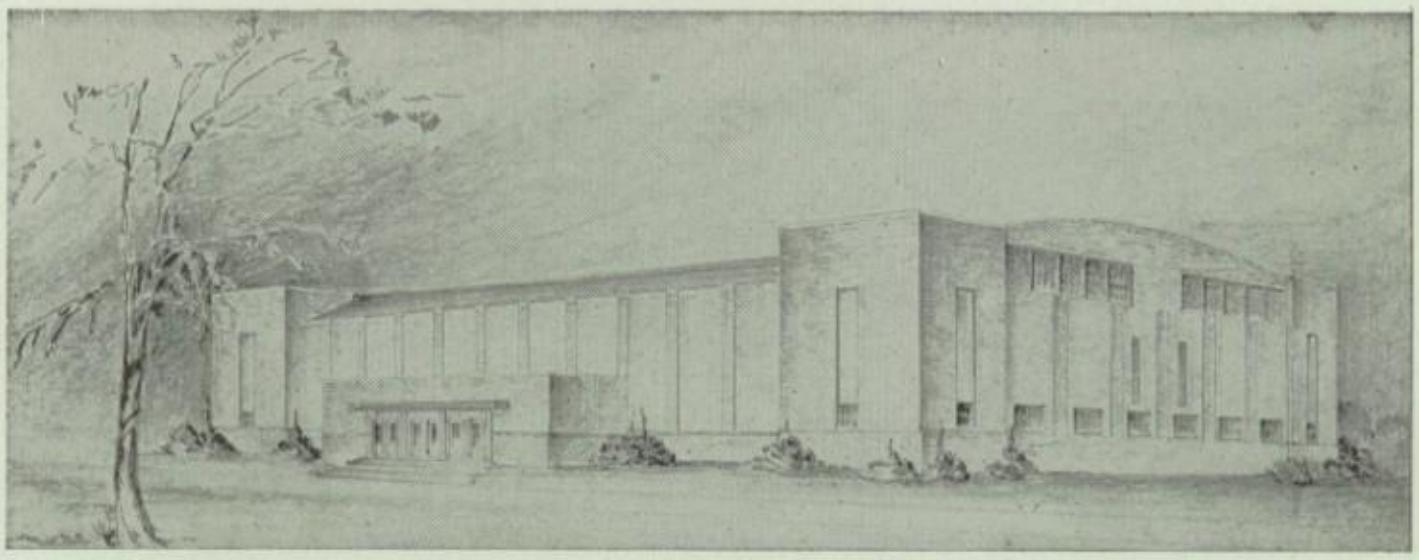
Football Season . . .



South High Warriors emerged from their gridiron encounters with six wins and three losses, two of which cost them the city series championship, and left them the consolation of third place honors.

In the opener with Chaney, the Red and Blue chalked up their first victory then went down to defeat before a powerful Memorial team; offset that loss with a string of victories over Ursuline, Alliance and Niles; came off second best in their encounters with East and Woodrow Wilson; climaxed their season play with a sensational victory over Rayen; and, finally, indulged in a field day with Girard.

The Warriors scored 18 touchdowns to which they added 6 extra points for a grand total of 114 against 63 tallied by their opponents.

The season produced the usual quota of outstanding players among whom were listed eleven graduating seniors, eight juniors and a lucky string of thirteen sophomores together with a host of substitutes whom Manager McEvey eulogized in the following manner:

"To you the fans in the stands . . .

"Maybe you call him the man behind the team, this substitute who waits hopefully on the bench for his chance to break into the game, this Zeigler, Jones, Bell, Fagin, Barrett, Richards, Rigney, Goodall, Albaugh, Sybrant, Williams, Kay, Compolito, Hays, Weaver. Maybe you call him the man behind the team, the substitute, but he is the star of tomorrow. He is the boy who is destined to become the Saturday hero to you, the fans in the stands . . ."

City Series Record . . .

SOUTH vs. CHANEY

In the first game of the season, the Red and Blue of South High defeated a fighting Chaney eleven, 7-6. The accurate passing and hard running of Beckenbach, the fine defensive play of Bell, and the outstanding line play of Poulakos were the main factors in enabling the Warriors to hold the line and clear the way for Beckenbach's smash through the line for the lone marker.

SOUTH vs. URSULINE

For the third consecutive season the Warriors defeated Ursuline, this time by the score of 13-7, to add one more victory to their City-Series chain. Beckenbach scored two touchdowns as the determined Red and Blue line held the "Fighting Irish" to one score. Walter Jones and Jim Compolito starred in the defensive play—Beckenbach in the offensive.

SOUTH vs. EAST

The South High Warriors suffered their first city-series defeat of the season at the hands of a powerful East High team. Despite the fact that the Warriors were able to score two touchdowns in four plays, they were powerless to stop the on-rush of an East team that swept aside the South 13-12 edge and chalked up its own impressive 18-13 tally. Beckenbach, Turner and Poulakos were stand-outs for South.

SOUTH vs. WILSON

The South Warriors went down to their second consecutive defeat in the series, this time at the hands of the powerful Wilson Presidents. The final score: 19-13. The impressive lead taken by Wilson early in the game and maintained until the final quarter was smashed by a two-touchdown South rally that sent the Presidents into the sky-ways for a flash pass that gave them another marker and the game. Mike and Jim Compolito and Turner captured defensive-play honors in the contest.

SOUTH vs. RAYEN

In the last city-series game of the season, the Red and Blue-clad Warriors took the measure of their old rival, Rayen, and forged another victory link in their chain by a score of 13-6. Taking a seven point lead in the first quarter, South added another six in the fourth; but a brilliant run by Tobachino of Rayen narrowed the margin to seven points and kept the Warriors on the alert for a repeat performance.

The victory over Rayen broke the thirty-year deadlock of twelve games won, twelve lost and six tied.

Basketball Champions . . .

First row: Davis, Coppersmith, Soller, Beckenbach, Dorfmueller, Barrett.
Second row: Jones, D. Goodall, Price, Girts, Ziegler, Stanton, J. Goodall, Coach Beach.
Third row: Strozier, Griffith, Hewitson, Cummings, Hosa, Makara, Kennedy.

For the second consecutive year, Coal Al Beach maneuvered the South High cagers into scoring position for city championship honors. Victories over East, Rayen, and Ursuline and a sensational go at Woodrow Wilson gave the Red and Blue the edge in the contest; while the final game with Scienceville polished off the second leg on the city-series traveling trophy, wherein is reflected the glory of the South High basketeers who vanquished all local contenders except the Chaney High courtmen. Out of fifteen visiting teams, eleven bowed to the skill of the Warrior tribe; while four emerged victorious.

Season Record . . .

GAME SUMMARY

In the opening game of the season, the South High cagemen went down to defeat at the hands of a powerful Toronto team, but rallied sufficiently to win six straight encounters with impressive scores against Struthers, Niles, Canton McKinley, Boardman, East Palestine, and Youngstown East. The hard-hitting, sharpshooting Canton Timken, however, proved too much for the Warrior tribe and they experienced their second defeat of the season.

With one city-series game annexed, the Red and Blue moved in against Rayen, took their measure, and defeated them by a decisive 34-26 score. For South, Soller was high-point man; and Coppersmith, the winner of laurels for excellent defensive play. In the Alliance encounter with Beckenbach leading the way, the Warriors polished off a 32-26 score, but displayed a tarnished 27-45 in the struggle with the Sharon High outfit. The game with Sharon's rival, Farrell, gave South claim to one more victory.

The third city-series game proved a near-calamity when Chaney set the Warriors back on their heels and won the ball game. However, after this defeat, the Warriors hit another winning streak that carried them successfully through the next six games, the last of which marked the close of the official season. First, they edged out Memorial on a two-point lead, then with Soller back in the line-up turned the full force of their attack against Ursuline. Bob Stanton tallied eleven points and Coppersmith and Soller each ten. Next they tangled with Wilson and, in a nip-and-tuck encounter that kept the crowd of 2800 fans on the alert, eliminated their South Side rival from the city-series titular race. Coppersmith was the high-point man for the locals.

A victory over Scienceville and Chaney's defeat by East High gave the Warriors undisputed first place honors in the city contest. Then to finish the season in a high-handed fashion, the Red and Blue quintet took 18-point and 17-point game leads respectively over Sebring and Girard.

The record of the Warrior season is impressive and one that attests to the coaching skill of mentor Al Beach.

To the Class of '44

You graduate in a fateful year in world history. Many of the boys will go into the service of their country. Many of the girls will take home front jobs to further the war effort. Whatever you do, wherever you go, remember the democratic educational background you have received, the foundation you have been given for your future responsibilities of citizenship in a great free country. It is to your generation that the task will be given to maintain the Four Freedoms for which the brave young men of the Allied Nations are now so valiantly fighting. This is a great and grave responsibility. Never forget it.
